VISITOR FROM THE WHITE HOUSE COMING FEBRUARY 18, 1971

Dr. Lee W. Huebner, White House speech writer, was one of the 7 men investigating student unrest last year for President Nixon. OSU-Lima was one of the colleges he sounded out so he will not be entirely new to some students.

Huebner, a native of Sheboygan, Wisconsin, has been a member of the White House writing staff since January of 1969. He received his B.A. degree from Northwestern University in 1962 and his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from Harvard University, finishing his work in American History in 1968. His doctoral dissertation dealt with the rise of the mass media and its impact on political thinking. At Harvard he was also a Teaching Fellow in history and coach of the debate team. Dr. Huebner was one of the founders of the Ripon Society, a progressive Republican research organization, and was president of that group for two years before joining the Nixon Administration.

His schedule for the visit Thursday is:

Luncheon	12:00	Cafeteria
Discussion	1:00	Room 118 Galvin Hall
Coffee Hour	2:00	Faculty Lounge

Friends and Foes of Dom Candeloro who would like to know what Mr. Candeloro was like as a student remember that Dr. Huebner was once his roommate.

THURSDAY FILM TO BE THE WRECKING CREW

It's Dean Martin in another super-duper, wild-swinging, sex-filled comedy-adventure as Matt Helm, the ICE's favorite counterespionage agent...When a billion dollars in gold is hijacked in Denmark, ICE talks the reluctant commercial photographer into taking on the job of recovering it. Secret weapons, gorgeous girls and a super-villain provide the complications. A miraculous minicopter get-away and a fantastic cross-Alps chase are part of the suspenseful fun as Dean and his luscious co-stars savort through another exuberant, eye-filling, sophisticated action-spoof! The stars of this color movie are Dean Martin, Elke Sommer, Sharon Tate, Nancy Kwan, Nigel Green, and Tina Louise.

DR. BRIM ANNOUNCES VISIT OF PSYCHOLOGIST

A HOT FLASH: IF YOU'RE UGLY-YOUR DAY IS COMING

WHO'S WHO AT LIMA CAMPUS

Anyone taking education courses here can't help running into Al Anderson. Al and Lynne Schran head the Early and Middle Childhood Education Program at Lima. Al is a member of the EMCE Council of the Ohio State University that is the administrative body for all policies and decisions affecting the entire EMCE department.

Al received his B.A. and M.A. degrees from Los Angeles State College and is in the dissertation stage of his Ph.D. at the University of Oregon at Eugene.

Al is married to Irina Anderson and they have two daughters, Kirsten 12 and Janine 5. They live at 3440 Redbud Lane in Lima. Al met Irina at a German Dance in Modesto, California one week after Irina came to the United States from Austria. Irina was originally from Vienna.

Al's main field of interest is Curriculum and Instruction with specialization in the interpersonal relationships and the education of the disadvantaged. His dissertation is in an in-service training project with teachers.

Al taught in the elementary and junior college level for 10 years. He was an administrator in Junior High and Elementary School Systems for eight years in California and Thailand.

The Andersons' hobbies include traveling (Al has been in 21 foreign countries), music of all kinds from Rock to Beethoven(their record collection contains over 350 volumes. Al's special hobby is collecting "O" gauge model railroad equipment. If anyone has some cars they would like to get rid of, Al would be glad to take them off your hands. His great ambition is to write a successful "dirty" novel.

LIMA CAMPUS THEATER HARD AT WORK

The Lima Campus Theater is hard at work in preparing for their first one act play coming up March 11. Mrs. Farmer would appreciate everyone using extreme caution while on stage and in the receiving room due to the materials and the stage props being built. There is a lot of time and material involved in the construction of sets--- so be careful in these areas.

LETTERS TO THE HOT FLASH MAN

Dear Mr. Hot Flash Man;

The third page of the next to last edition of the Hot Flash contained in bold-print a statement to the effect that all contributors to the Hot Flash are required to sign their names. This seems quite inconsistent with the Hot Flash's present policy since 'we' the faculty, students and administration and staff do not know who the Hot Flash Man is! I would like some clarification on the matter. Are we to assume that the Hot Flash Man has the right to make the journalistic rules of the Hot Flash or further are we to assume that the Hot Flash is a non-representative piece of journalism-perhaps subversive. Until this matter is clarified I have no intention of signing my name to any contribution (or non-contribution depending on your view point) I make to the Hot Flash.

--ME--

Dear Me:

I know who you are and you know who I am. Besides, my statement, referred to by you, reflects, I am sure, an official administrative position! I am not a contributor anyway. Besides I just asked that contributions be signed-you signed yours "ME".

The Hot Flash Man

Dear Hot Flash Man,

Watching the news the other night, I noticed the NBC news organization was asking the students what they thought of the invasion of Laos. All interviewed answered that it was terrible. I wonder how much film had to be edited due to people answering who didn't care about the invasion of Laos. Most college students across the nation, I am sure, do not care about the invasion of Laos or even know that the invasion is happening. Besides, who is going to riot when it is cold outside?

It looks like the best time for Nixon to do so-called unpopular things like invade Cambodia is during the winter.

ANOTHER EXCITING LETTER TO THE HOT FLASH MAN ON PAGE SIX!

Dear Hot Flash Man,

I can see that my simple and most humble suggestion has turned into a polemic contest in two languages. Your rebuttal includes two salient points: 1) that this is not Germany; a statement which on the whole I agree with, and 2) that the name Hot Flash came as an inspiration. I would like to point out that the history of mankind is replete with inspirations such as the Edsel, the medical use of leaches, and the instamatic camera. Now that these basic points of contention have been assuaged we can get on with the business at hand, that being a consideration of the tastefulness, desirability, and public effect of the name HOT FLASH. I am not opposed to a ridiculous name -- some of my best friends have ridiculous names. What I do oppose is the lewd and altogether tasteless connotation which HOT FLASH engenders in the minds of our unspoiled and delicate youth (as well as the effects on some unspoiled and delicate elders). Such a situation is truly dangerous to the mental health of the student body at large. Who knows what unconscious events take place when a student sees HOT FLASH HOT FLASH HOT FLASH written across the front of their newspaper.

I think LIMA BLATT is a nice name.

Michael Tincher

Dear Mr. Tincher:

I had one more salient point you did not list: college newspapers have ridiculous names. Your letter is very nice and very funny too. However, Lima Blatt does not constitute a "hot flash from the heavens" for me. We can not have a contest for a new name with 3 entries: Lima Blatt, Lima Leaf and Hot Flash.

There seems to be a noticeable amount of student apathy concerning this issue.
